

Government of India
Department of Training & Personnel

New Delhi, the 31st March, 1992.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject: Counting of training period for the purpose of drawing increments - clarification regarding.

The undersigned is directed to say that in accordance with the orders contained in this Ministry's O.M. No. 15-16/89-Sett.(pay-I) dated 22.10.90 the period spent on training is treated as duty for the purpose of increment in cases where a person has been selected for regular appointment but before formally taking over charge of the post for which selected is required to undergo training. These orders take effect from 1.10.90. On the demand of the staff side in the National Council (JCM) the matter has further been examined and the President's please to decide that the benefit of treatment of such training as duty for the purpose of increments may be allowed in the case of those Government servants also who had undergone such training on or after 1.1.1986. However, in such cases, the benefit of counting period for pay will be admissible on national basis from 1.1.1986 and actual basis from 1.10.1990.

2. Ministries of Communications etc. are requested to bring these provisions to the notice of all concerned.

3. In so far as the persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department are concerned these orders issue with the concurrence of Comptroller & Auditor General of India.
